Item 1. Changes in Control

Sempra Energy, on June 26, 1998, acquired all of the outstanding voting securities of Enova Corporation of which San Diego Gas & Electric Company is a subsidiary.

The acquisition was effected in connection with a business combination of Enova Corporation and Pacific Enterprises (the corporate parent of Southern California Gas Company) effected as a tax-free reorganization and accounted for as a pooling of interests for financial reporting purposes. Sempra Energy was formed to serve as a holding company for the two corporations in connection with the combination and has not conducted any business activities other than those incidental to the combination.

Enova Corporation owns all of the 116,583,358 outstanding shares of San Diego Gas & Electric Company Common Stock. The shares owned by Enova Corporation represent 98% of the votes related to the outstanding voting shares of San Diego Gas & Electric Company.

The Board of Directors of Sempra Energy consists of sixteen members, eight of whom are and were at the time of business combination directors of Enova Corporation (including six directors of San Diego Gas & Electric Company) and eight of whom are and were at the time of the business combination directors of Pacific Enterprises (including seven of the eight directors of Southern California Gas Company).

Upon the completion of the business combination, the authorized number of directors of San Diego Gas & Electric Company was increased to thirteen and seven additional directors were elected, including Warren I. Mitchell (Chairman and President of Southern California Gas Company) who was elected Chairman of the Board. Each of the other six additional directors (Hyla H. Berteau, Herbert L. Carter, Wilford D. Godbold, Jr., Ignacio E. Lozano, Jr., Richard J. Stegemeier and Diana L. Walker) is also a director of Pacific Enterprises. All of the directors of San Diego Gas & Electric Company (other than Mr. Mitchell) are also directors of Sempra Energy and none (other than Mr. Mitchell) is an officer or other employee of Sempra Energy or any of its subsidiaries.

It is contemplated that the authorized number of directors of San Diego Gas & Electric Company will be further increased to fifteen directors upon shareholder approval of a requisite bylaw amendment and that two additional directors of Sempra Energy (Robert H. Goldsmith, who is also a director of Enova Corporation, and William G. Ouchi, who is also a director of Pacific Enterprises) will be elected as directors of San Diego Gas & Electric Company. Upon such election the Board of Directors of San Diego Gas & Electric Company would consist of fourteen of the sixteen directors of Sempra Energy (including all of the directors who are not officers or other employees of Sempra Energy or its subsidiaries) and Mr. Mitchell.
