Amendment No. 5 To Application On) File No. 70-9033 Form U-1 Of Sempra Energy)

INTRODUCTION

This amendment is being filed to report that the Federal Communications Commission (the "FCC") has granted the applications for permanent authorizations referred to in Amendment No. 4 to Sempra Energy's Application on Form U-1, under Item 4. Regulatory Approvals, paragraph E. Temporary authorizations, which permitted the Transaction to be consummated, had previously been granted and were reported in Amendment No. 4.
With respect to two of these applications, which were filed on FCC Form 415, the authorizations are filed herewith as Exhibits D-15 and D-16. With respect to the remaining two applications, which were filed on FCC Form 703, the applicants were notified orally by FCC staff that these applications were granted. While the FCC does not issue official grant notices with respect to this Form, the FCC has issued new licenses reflecting these authorizations.

Item 6. Exhibits and Financial Statements

The following exhibits are filed with this Amendment.

FCC Form 415
Transfer of Control
San Diego & Electric Company
Exhibit B

DESCRIPTION OF TRANSACTION

The instant application seeks the FCC's approval of the transfer of control of the corporate licensee, San Diego Gas & Electric Company ("SDG&E"). SDG&E is a subsidiary of Enova Corporation ("Enova"). Enova Corporation and Pacific Enterprises, the parent company of Southern California Gas Company, have agreed to a business combination in which they will become a subsidiary of a new holding company to be named Sempra Energy. This strategic merger of equals will be a tax-free transaction accounted for as a pooling of interests in which common shareholders of Pacific Enterprises and Enova will receive 1.5028 shares of Sempra Energy for each share of Pacific Enterprises and one share of Sempra Energy common stock for each share of Enova common stock. The preferred stock of Pacific Enterprises will remain outstanding.

This strategic merger will be of substantial benefit to the customers of both of the FCC corporate licensees. Pacific Enterprises and Enova expect to receive approvals from other necessary regulatory agencies to consummate the business merger. Thus, grant of this application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

FCC Form 415
 Transfer of Control
 Southern California Gas Company
 Exhibit B

DESCRIPTION OF TRANSACTION

The instant application seeks the FCC's approval of the transfer of control of the corporate licensee, Southern California Gas Company ("SoCal Gas"). Southern California Gas company is the principal subsidiary of Pacific Enterprises. Pacific Enterprises and Enova Corporation ("Enova"), the parent company of San Diego Gas & Electric Company, have agreed to a business combination in which they will become a subsidiary of a new holding company to be named Sempra Energy. This strategic merger of equals will be a tax-free transaction accounted for as a pooling of interests in which common shareholders of Pacific Enterprises and Enova will receive 1.5028 shares of Sempra Energy for each share of Pacific Enterprises and one share of Sempra Energy common stock for each share of Enova common stock. The preferred stock of Pacific Enterprises will remain outstanding.

This strategic merger will be of substantial benefit to the customer of both of the FCC corporate licensees. Pacific Enterprises and Enova expect to receive all approvals from other necessary regulatory agencies to consummate the business merger. Thus, grant of this application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

FCC Form 415
Southern California Gas Company
Exhibit C

Five of the ninety (90) operational fixed microwave authorizations have facilities whose construction is in progress, but are not completely constructed and have not been placed in operation. These five (5) call signs are WPNM316; WPNM472; WPNM473; WPNM474; and WPNM720.

During the pendency of the approval of the merger of the two utility companies by the various governmental entities, including the FCC, Southern California Gas Company ("SoCal Gas") has continued to conduct its day-to-day operations as needed, including obtaining authorizations for new microwave facilities to handle the conduct of the company's business. The five microwave call signs at issue were recently granted, and, thus, insufficient time has passed to permit completion of construction. SoCal Gas submits that neither cancellation of the call signs to allow the transfer of control to be completed nor delay in the FCC's approval of the transfer of control would be in the public interest. Nor would permitting transfer of control of a de minimus number of unreconstructed facilities undermine the Commission's rules governing the microwave services.

Accordingly, SoCal Gas asks that the Commission grant the transfer of control of these five licenses for which the underlying facilities have not been constructed.

FCC FORM 703
Transfer of Control
Southern California Gas Company
Exhibit B

DESCRIPTION OF TRANSACTION

The instant application seeks the FCC's approval of the transfer of control of the corporate licensee, Southern California Gas Company ("SoCal Gas"). Southern California Gas company is the principal subsidiary of Pacific Enterprises. Pacific Enterprises and Enova Corporation ("Enova"), the parent company of San Diego Gas & Electric Company, have agreed to a business combination in which they will become a subsidiary of a new holding company to be named Sempra Energy. This strategic merger of equals will be a tax-free transaction accounted for as a pooling of interests in which common shareholders of Pacific Enterprises and Enova will receive 1.5028 shares of Sempra Energy for each share of Pacific Enterprises and one share of Sempra Energy common stock for each share of Enova common stock. The preferred stock of Pacific Enterprises will remain outstanding.

This strategic merger will be of substantial benefit to the customer of both of the FCC corporate licensees. Pacific Enterprises and Enova expect to receive all approvals from other necessary regulatory agencies to consummate the business merger. Thus, grant of this application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

Dear Applicant:

The above referenced application for assignment/transfer of control has been granted. Due to the in-operability of our computer processing system we are unable to issue a formal Consent Form FCC732-C at this time. When the problems with our processing system have been corrected we will generate a formal Consent Form FCC732-C.

Sincerely,

Microwave Branch
